

REMARKS

Claims 18-40, 48-50, 53-55 and 60-66 remain pending and stand allowed. Claims 1-17, 41-47, 51-52 and 56-59 have been cancelled. By this Amendment, claim 53 is amended to correct an antecedent basis error.

Claim 53 had been amended in the Amendment filed March 27, 2006. Subsequently, an Office Action was mailed June 20, 2006. Responsive to the June 20 Office Action, a Response was filed on July 11, 2006 in which claim 53 was presented as a Previously Presented claim. However, two lines were regrettably and inadvertently dropped from the Previously Presented claim 53. The examiner noticed this inadvertent omission, and after a telephone conference on September 13, 2006 between the applicants' undersigned representative and Examiner Selby, the applicants' representative authorized the examiner to enter an examiner's amendment to restore the omitted two lines to claim 53 as the lines should have been entered based on the March 27, 2006 Amendment. Then on September 22, 2006, the Patent Office mailed a Notice of Allowability that included the examiner's amendment; however, the examiner's amendment introduced an antecedent basis error. The examiner's amended language inserted two lines that included the phrase "onto the second sensor." However, there is no antecedent basis in the claim for "the second sensor." Accordingly, the present after allowance Amendment changes this phrase to "onto a second sensor" as it should have been entered based on the March 27, 2006 Amendment.

In view of the foregoing amendment and remarks, it is respectfully submitted that the application remains in condition for allowance. Prompt reconsideration and allowance are earnestly solicited. Should the examiner believe that any further action is necessary to place the application in condition for allowance, the examiner is invited to contact the undersigned representative at the telephone number listed below.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any fees associated with this response or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 13-3402.

Respectfully submitted,
